ABOUT US

Working towards recovery in community is a primary tenet of our Center.

For people living with mental health and co-occurring challenges in Morris County, we are the place to come and find support.

The Morris Community Wellness Center has been providing peer-led services to help individuals grow beyond these challenges for over 20 years. We actively engage in advocacy for mental health issues, and we help peers to find the right level of engagement with others in a safe space, in community.
